“Classifiers: How to Incorporate Constructed Action in an ASL classroom”

Learn how to incorporate more classifiers, role shifting, using facial expressions, and dialogues

Saturday, November 17, 2012

Mesa College Room H 117 (See Map on 3rd Page)

Jimmy Beldon, CDI, MA, teaches at the St. Catherine University in the Interpreter Training Program on the St. Paul campus. Jimmy is a native of Deaf culture and American Sign Language, as well as a trained and certified interpreter. Jimmy has gained prominence as a communication specialist and certified deaf interpreter throughout the court system. He also provides consulting on issues of deaf culture, communication needs, and working with deaf immigrants and/or refugees. Jimmy served on a national board for interpreters for 8 years and continues to volunteer his time to the National Registry of Interpreters (RID).
