

Adam Stone

Ipads and Macs: Technology to Make Your ASL Instruction CHAMP!

Sunday, February 26, 2012
Deaf Community Services

3930 Fourth Ave, Suite 300, San Diego, CA 92103

Limited free parking. Additional parking on street. Please carpool!

Adam will be demonstrating new technology tools to enhance your ASL and/or Deaf Education instruction. Create and manage an online library of ASL literature. Provide real-time feedback in ASL for students' videos. Use Twitter and other tools to create a backchannel discussion among students during class. And more!

A San Diego native, Adam is a first grade teacher at PS 347 The ASL and English Lower School in Manhattan. He received his M.A. in ASL/English Bilingual Education from UCSD in August 2010, and loves using technology (especially iPads!) to enrich his students' learning of ASL as a first language.

Welcome & Introductions
Presentation

1:00 p.m.
1:30 – 3:30 p.m.

ASLTA welcomes all ASL and Deaf Education Teachers, ASL and Interpreting students, and Community members

Registration Information:

All profits will be donated to Deaf Community Services Adult Literacy Program!!!

Current SD-ASLTA members: $5
(please email plott@ucsd.edu to reserve your space).

Non-members: $10 in advance
(must be postmarked no later than Saturday, Feb 18) or $20 at the door.

If you would like to join SD-ASLTA, you can do so for an annual fee of $10 at the membership table. Your membership will continue until December 31, 2012.

Presentation will be in ASL, no voice interpreter provided.

For more information contact: Peggy Lott at plott@ucsd.edu

Registration – SD-ASLTA Presentation: I pads and Macs: Technology to Make Your ASL Instruction CHAMP! Sunday, Feb 26, 2012

Name: _____ Email: _____
Address: _____
City/State/Zip: _____
School/District: _____

Please mail registration form and check for $10.00 (non-members, $5 for current SD-ASLTA members) made payable to SD-ASLTA to:

Peggy Lott
SD-ASLTA Treasurer
3038 Naugatuck Ave
San Diego, CA 92117