Flavia Fleischer

“Incorporating Deaf Community Cultural Wealth (DCCW) in Your Teaching”

This workshop will explore DCCW and its six capitals: linguistic, social, familial, navigational, aspirational, and resistant. Each of these capitals will be explained and examples will be given as to how ASL instructors can work with the Deaf community by supporting these capitals in their teaching.

When: Saturday, April 6th, 2013

Where: Moores UCSD Cancer Center

Cost: $20 for members & $25 for non-members

Dr. Flavia Fleischer is currently the Chair of the Deaf Studies Department at California State University, Northridge. Prior to becoming the chair, Flavia taught at Gallaudet University from 2003-2006 and at Utah Valley University from 2007-2011.

Although her academic background centers on linguistics, Flavia is an activist and is very interested in fighting against oppression of all minorities, especially oppression of deaf people. Flavia has given numerous workshops and presentations relating to ASL, ASL Linguistics, Deaf Education, and Deaf Cultural Studies.
